

Name _____

Based on your opinion, order the choices 1-7.

Why do so few women appear in world history books?

___ The history books are essentially accurate. For whatever reason, women have made fewer major contributions.

___ The history books and historical research were primarily done by men and they have undervalued and underreported contributions made by women.

___ Woman have made fewer major historical contributions because the patriarchal nature of most human societies has given them far fewer opportunities to learn and contribute.

___ The historians focus on the wrong topics. They primarily examine areas where men dominated.

___ In eras that depended on strength for work and war, men dominated because they are bigger and stronger.

___ Men made more intellectual and artistic contributions because on the average they are more intelligent and more artistic.

___ Another answer (explain)
